

Long Tall Glasses

Leo Sayer

A

I was travellin' down the road
Feelin' hungry and cold
I saw a sign sayin'
Food and drinks for everyone

D

So naturally I thought

I would take me a look inside

E

I saw so much food

There was water coming from my eyes

Yeah, there was ham and there was turkey

There was caviar

And long tall glasses

With wine up to y'are

And somebody grabbed me

Threw me out of my chair

Said "before you can eat

You gotta dance like Fred Astaire"

You know I can't dance

You know I can't dance

You know I can't dance

You know I can't dance

D A E D A

I can't dance

I am a man of the road

A hobo by name

I don't seek entertainment

Just poultry and game

But if it's all the same to you

Then yes, I will try my hand

If you were hungry as me

Then I'm sure you will understand

Hmmmmmm, now wait a minute
Of course I can dance
Of course I can dance
I'm sure I can dance
I'm sure I can dance
I can dance
I can dance
I really hit the floor
Ah, it feels good
Look at me dancing

I did a two-step, quick-step and a bossanova
A little victor sylvester and a rudy valentino
You should have seen me moving
Right across the floor
Hand me down my tuxedo
Next week I'm coming back for more

I can dance
Oh yes, I can dance
Look at me dance on the floor movin'
I feel good
I can dance
I can dance
I can dance...
